PREPARED?

Commuter Emergency Preparedness KIT

Even on a typical day in the Puget Sound region, your trip to work might be affected by traffic, schedule changes or construction.

But what if snow, a flood or another emergency creates serious delays or safety risks? What's your back-up plan to stay safe and still do your job? Can you work from home? Do you know other ways to travel? Do you know how to get the latest news?

Take actions NOW to be ready if there's an emergency.
Use this checklist.

KNOW

- Subscribe to transit/traffic alerts.
- Subscribe to emergency notification systems.

INFORM

- Find out all your commute alternatives.
- Find out if you can work from home or change your schedule in an emergency.
- Talk to your "Employee Transportation Coordinator" (ETC).

TAKE ACTION!

- Maintain communication with family, friends, co-workers and your ETC during an emergency.
- Set up and test telecommuting alternatives prior to an emergency event.
- Register at www.RideshareOnline.com for temporary rideshare arrangements.
- If possible, offer a ride to a co-worker during an emergency.
- Be prepared BEFORE the emergency.
